PRESS RELEASE

Guam Legal Services Corporation Launches Legal Assistance for Victims Program

Guam Legal Services Corporation–Disability Law Center (GLSC-DLC) has been awarded a three-year grant through the Legal Assistance for Victims (LAV) Program administered by the Office on Violence Against Women of the U.S. Department of Justice.

Through this program, GLSC-DLC will provide no-cost civil legal services to victims of sexual assault, domestic violence, stalking, and dating violence throughout Guam.

The program aims to address the growing need for civil legal services for survivors on Guam by helping victims secure both immediate safety protections and long-term stability. GLSC-DLC can assist survivors in securing protective orders, and provides legal assistance with divorce, custody, and other legal matters stemming from abuse.

To qualify for services, applicants must meet income requirements.

Survivors seeking assistance or more information about the Legal Assistance for Victims Program may contact Guam Legal Services Corporation–Disability Law Center at (671) 477-9811 or via email at information@guamlsc.org
